Crosshouse Primary School
Website Accessibility Statement

As an inclusive establishment, we want as many people as possible to be able to use our website.

Therefore, we have ensured the following:

- you should be able to zoom in to text
- navigate easily
- links are clear
- listen to most of our website using a screen reader
- our website text should be as simple as possible to understand
- files will always be uploaded in PDF format or website links to ensure the widest audience can access them
- our structure follows a sensible layout
- headings are clear, concise and consistent in size and colour
- we have a symbols and words to show menu headers
- you should be able to access on any device
- we ensure we use text and colours/pictures where possible
- ensure sufficient contrast between background and text
- all information is available in another format, either in print or via email - ask the school

We know some parts of this website may not be fully accessible yet (e.g., live videos) and some of our captions and images may not have a text alternative.

Abilitynet.org.uk has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

If you need information on this website in a different format then please contact the school using the details on the home page.

We are always looking at ways to improve the accessibility of this website. If you have problems using the site or think we are not meeting accessibility requirements then please contact the school using the details on the home page.

South Lanarkshire Council is committed to making all of its websites accessible, in line with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications (No 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.
